The Ant and The Grasshopper

Once upon a time, there lived an ant and a grasshopper in a grassy meadow. It was during the hot summer season when the ant was toiling hard by collecting wheat grains from the farmer's field. On the other hand, the grasshopper spent all his time in singing and dancing. He would frequently call the ant to join him in singing and dancing. However, the ant would ignore him and continue with her work. The ant said that she was saving some food for the cold season and recommended the grasshopper to follow the same. The grasshopper didn't pay heed to her words and continued singing and dancing merrily. Soon summer faded to autumn and autumn to winter. Out of cold, the grasshopper lost his interest in singing and making merry. He was cold and hungry and had no place to take shelter from the snow outside. Suddenly he remembered about the ant and visited her for some food and shelter. The grasshopper made an approach to her for some food and shelter. She gently asked him to sing somewhere else and earn his food and shelter. It is then, the grasshopper realized that he should have saved up enough for the winter instead of wasting his time being lazy during summer in singing and dancing around.
